• The response to the events like Castings & Foundries has been quite positive, and it is evident that they are creating a significant amount of awareness regarding the foundry industry. The K and D management and team have done an excellent job in organizing these events. As we continue to see this trend of events unfold, there is no doubt that even more awareness will be generated. In fact, our own participation in the next edition of these events is already confirmed.

Mr. Dinesh Garg Director BEHARI LAL GROUP

We are delighted with the response to Engimach as there has been great footfall. This being the first time that Castings & Foundries have been included in the event, and it is remarkable how well-received it was. The high level of awareness surrounding the event will not only contribute to the growth of the casting industry but also ensure that it stays up-to-date with new market scenarios.

Mr. Saurabh Bhardwaj Head Foundry Vertical ELECTROTHERM (INDIA) LIMITED

The Castings & Foundries exhibition is invaluable for the foundry industry, allowing companies to focus on this specific sector. By participating in such events, we not only showcase our products and services but also establish connections within the industry. The response we have received has been overwhelmingly positive. This success motivates us to return for the next edition without hesitation. We are always eager to take part in events that shine a spotlight on foundries and provide opportunities for exposure and growth.

TESTIMONIALS OF EXHIBITORS

CASTINGS & FOUNDRIES EXP INDIA Promoting Foundries

Through our participation in Castings & Foundries, we have been able to gain significant exposure. This event has attracted industrialists from various sectors who have shown a keen interest in our offerings, allowing us to establish valuable contacts. We are confident that attending this event again next year will further enhance our visibility and networking opportunities.

Mr. Ritesh Patel

Director & Chief Executive Officer HEATTRANS EQUIPMENTS PRIVATE LIMITED

The event, which was skillfully conducted by KandD and their team, deserves our heartfelt appreciation. We are grateful to them for organizing such a grand platform for the Foundries Industry. This initiative plays a pivotal role in promoting "Make-in-India" within the foundries sector, benefiting both current industry players and those who plan to join in the future. With this remarkable event, we can confidently say that we will be eagerly looking forward to participating again in the future.

Mr. Manish Sahu

Assistant Manager (Product Development) JALPA DEVI ENGINEERING PRIVATE LIMITED

This is our first time at Engimach and also at the Castings exhibition, and we couldn'the happier with the response. We have received numerous enquiries, which has been truly encouraging for us. This platform provided us with the opportunity to meet new buyers and suppliers all in one place, making our job much easier. We would like to express our gratitude to KandD and their team for their amazing work in organizing this event, and we sincerely hope they continue arranging such events more frequently. Needless to say, we are already looking forward to coming back for future editions.

Mr. Shailesh Bhuva

Director REVOLVING TECHNO CAST

We have achieved remarkable success in generating leads for the future, thanks to the invaluable efforts of KandD and the team. Their commitment to excellence has paved the way for potential growth and expansion. We are confident that our partnership will continue to flourish and yield even greater results in the future.
